PUBLIC NOTICE

The Tennessee Division of Air Pollution Control (TDAPC) has received requests for construction and/or modification of air contaminant sources as noted below. The proposed construction and/or modification is subject to part 1200-3-9-.01(1)(h) of the Tennessee Air Pollution Control Regulations, which requires a public notification and 30-day public comment period. Interested parties may express their comments and concerns in writing to Mr. Barry R. Stephens, Director, Division of Air Pollution Control, William R. Snodgrass Tennessee Tower, 312 Rosa L. Parks Avenue, 15th Floor, Nashville, Tennessee 37243 within thirty (30) days of the date of this notice. Questions concerning a source may be addressed to the assigned Division personnel at the same address or by calling 615-532-0554. Individuals with disabilities who wish to participate should contact the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation to discuss any auxiliary aids or services needed to facilitate such participation. Such contact may be in person, by writing, telephone, or other means, and should be made no less than ten days prior to the end of the public comment period to allow time to provide such aid or services. Contact the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation ADA Coordinator, William R. Snodgrass Tennessee Tower, 312 Rosa L. Parks Avenue, 2nd Floor, Nashville, Tennessee 37243, 1-855-253-5827. Hearing impaired callers may use the Tennessee Relay Service, 1-(800)-848-0298. The applicant is Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) - Newcastle Microwave Station with a mailing address of 1101 Market Street, Chattanooga, TN 37402-2801. They seek to obtain an air contaminant permit (Division identification number: 35-0107-01/70315) for the installation of one new 43.5 hp propane-powered emergency generator set located at 4745 Sommerville Road, Whiteville, TN 37075. Pollution control is not proposed. There would be physical construction. Regulated air contaminants are emitted by this source. Mr. Joshua Bartlett is the assigned Division person.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, William 'Hoochie-Pap' Wilson in 2012. The family requests memorial donations in Mr. Wilson's name be made to Shandy Baptist Church.

BBA holds luncheon and informa

By Amelia Monroe Carlson

The newly formed Bolivar Business Association (BBA) held a luncheon and information session for local business owners and members in the city on Thursday, June 18. The association, according to committee members who formed the organization, is aimed at encouraging business development within the city of Bolivar and additional ways of serving business owners.

The association provides business owners access to individuals who specialize in specific areas, such as social media marketing, that can help grow a business. The committee formed to create the association completed their term service, unless reappointed at the luncheon. During the luncheon, business owners were given the opportunity to sign up for membership to the BBA, nominate board members for the association, and learn more about how the annu

How the Red Cross raised half a b: for Haiti and built six homes..Par

Even as the group has publicly celebrated its work, insider accounts detail a string of failures

By Justin Elliott, ProPublica, and Laura Sullivan, NPR

The neighborhood of Campeche sprawls up a steep hillside in Haiti's capital city, Port-au-Prince. Goats rustle in trash that goes forever uncollected. Children kick a deflated volleyball in a dusty lot below a wall with a hand-painted logo of the American Red Cross.

and accounts of a dozen frustrated and disappointed insiders show the charity has broken promises, squandered donations, and made dubious claims of success.

The Red Cross says it has provided homes to more than 130,000 people. But the actual number of permanent homes the group has built in all of Haiti: six.

After the earthquake, Red Cross CEO Gail McGovern unveiled ambitious plans to "develop brand-new communities." None has had made "very disturbing remarks" disparaging Haitian employees. St. For who is Haitian America wrote that the comment included, "he is the on hard working one among them" and "the ones that have hired are not strong! we probably should not pay close attention to Haiti CVs."

The Red Cross won disclose details of how has spent the hundreds of millions of dollars donate for Haiti. But our report shows that less than
